but straight Hardware talk. You may think you'll not read it, but you will. The beauty of business is to do business in a business-like way—keep a good clean dollar-getting stock, sell at reasonable prices, treat customers politely, and rake in the cash when it comes your way. Its time of year to get in out of the cold—hover over the fire—and the need of the hour is

HEATING STOVES.

I have some solid comforts in the old reliable "ROUND OAK," which needs no song of praise to sound its worth.

The GARLAND—closing grate, latest improved; highly ornamental and nicely trimmed in nickel—a beauty.

Detroit Stove Co's WOOD BASE BURNER, a late pattern—handsome, well made—a regular earth-warmer.

COOKING STOVES.

I have a complete line of best makes and latest styles. But don't come here to buy a cheap stove. I don't keep them. They don't suit my patrons. None but the best for me.

CUTLERY.

Let me jog your memory to the fact that I have the finest line of AMERICAN CUTLERY in this county—which includes the best makes of Razors—Pocket Knives for a regiment of whittlers, etc.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Miss Lois Wilson Saturday, Sept. 24, at three p. m. There will be a report from Round the World Missionary.

C. H. Newton and family of Chicago are guests at the home of Charley Scott. Mr. N. intends spending a week or more in this vicinity, hunting and fishing.

The attractions offered at the Allegan Fair for this year are the best in the country and two performances of each act will be given each day of the fair.

Past Grand Commander Markey of Port Huron will deliver the address before the order of K. O. T. M. on the fair grounds at Allegan September 29th.

Jerome Hopkins received a telegram last Friday from Ludington informing him that his wife was seriously ill there, and he started at once for that place.

Rev. J. W. Arney of Saranac, known as "the horse racing parson," has withdrawn from the Michigan Conference of the M. E. church. He gives up preaching.

The 42d annual fair of the Hillsdale agricultural society will be held Oct. 3 to 7. Write J. F. Fitzsimmons, sec'y, Hillsdale, for premium lists and any other information.

The following young people will take part in the elocutionary contest at the "Country Fair" on Friday evening next: Merrit Conner, Misses Daisy Longwell, Gertrude Buck, Jessie Harrison and Lyle Buckhout. The prize is to be awarded by the vote of those present.

Henry Corey of Porter has rented his farm for one year and will spend that time in visiting and prospecting in Nebraska and other points in the west.

Every one is cordially invited to attend the "Country Fair" at the home of Mrs. Will Miller on Friday evening, under the auspices of the ladies of St. Mark's church.

The question as to whether the local option law of this county will be repealed in two years depends on how judiciously the next legislature amends it.—Bangor Advance.

Hon. C. L. Eaton, H. A. Chapin, M. U. Richardson and wife and N. W. Armstrong left Saturday for Washington, D. C., to participate in the G. A. R. National Encampment.

The B. Y. P. U. and Sunday school of the first Baptist church will give a missionary program next Sunday evening, this year being the centennial of Baptist missions. All are invited.

The grape crop of Van Buren county, the heaviest and best ever grown, is now being harvested and many carloads daily are being shipped. The market is satisfactory to shippers.

Mrs. C. H. Scott met with quite a serious accident one day last week. While driving home from Benton Harbor her carriage overturned, throwing her out and fracturing some of her ribs.

There is no danger of a potato famine in Van Buren county as long as Pine Grove "holds her bigness." Another mammoth crop from that township is reported as ready for harvesting.

The Bangor Advance of the 16th inst. reads the Decatur Republican a fine little lecture on modesty—"personified gall," he terms it. Profit by it? Not much. His head isn't constructed after that pattern.

Perhaps one of the finest prize society banners in the state is owned and will be carried by the Allegan Lodge of K. O. T. M. in the grand parade of the order on Thursday, Sept. 29th, that being one of the five big days of the Fair.

Hon. Henry F. Thomas, Republican nominee for congress, will address the citizens of Lawrence to-morrow (Thursday) evening. He should, and undoubtedly will, have a rousing reception.

A rumor was current on our streets Saturday evening and Sunday that Mrs. May Myers Chase had died suddenly from heart disease. We are glad to be able to state authoritatively that that lady is in excellent health.

The Woman's Missionary society of the F. W. Baptist church will meet at the home of Miss Grace Woodman on Saturday next. A full attendance is most earnestly desired. One of the features of the meeting is the picnic dinner.

Special attention is called to the extensive list of special premiums offered in the premium list of the Allegan County Fair, to be held Sept. 27 to Oct. 1. If you have not received a copy of the list send at once to the Secretary for one.

O. W. Rowland and Henry Shaefer are taking quite a little whirl on their "bikes." They rode from here to Chicago, where they intended to spend several days, and then make a somewhat extended tour through the interior of Illinois.

W. H. Dansby a day or two since learned that one of his little boys was carrying a loaded revolver around in his pocket, evidently bent on "taking to the road." The young warrior was quickly divested of his arsenal and sent to his mother.

We wish that one or the other of our banks would subscribe for enough of the World's Fair souvenir half-dollars to supply at least their customers with one each. Perhaps there would be nothing "in it" for the banks, but it would accommodate their friends.

The Plainwell Union Ag'l Society will hold its 18th annual fair Oct. 4, 5, 6, 7. The management expect to make this the most successful meeting the society has ever held. For premium lists and other information address W. H. Hooper, Sec'y, Plainwell, Mich.

Fabe Martin of Dowagiac is trying to persuade colored men of the state to vote the Democratic ticket. If Fabe welds any influence at all it will be where he is unknown. The colored people down in this end of the state are "onto" Fabe and his unsavory record.

Miss Minnie Fellows of Lyons, Ia., will have charge of Mrs. J. D. Hamilton's millinery parlors until after the opening, when she will go to Marquette to manage a branch store and Miss Rozo Palmer of Chicago will take charge of the trimming department here.

The campaign was opened in this county Monday evening at Grand Junction by Hon. Henry F. Thomas, Republican candidate for congress for this district. The Republican committee has about completed its plans for the campaign, and very shortly the battle will open all along the line.

Luther Beecher, the well-known capitalist, died at his residence in Detroit on the evening of the 16th inst. of Bright's disease, aged 77. He has made and lost large sums of money, but died worth from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000. He was the owner of the Biddle house, that has been vacant so many years.

The Grand Rapids Leader of last Thursday contains the following item: "While unloading peaches yesterday, a barrel upon which Mr. W. F. Warner was standing tipped over, causing Mr. W. to fall, fracturing the wrist of his left arm. The peach season will probably be over before he can use it again."

The Democratic senatorial convention for this district was held at Fennville on Thursday of last week. The tail wagged the dog again. A. S. McGowan of Lawrence, the People's party candidate, was endorsed by the Democrats, as there was no man in their own party who cared about tackling the stalwart Garvelink.

Among the marriage licenses issued during the past week was one for the nuptials of May and December in the persons of Spencer Beach, 76, and Abbie Burch, 16, both of Porter.

At the next regular meeting of Paw Paw Grange, Friday evening, Sept. 30th, the subject for discussion will be: That section 1 article 1 of the constitution be so amended as to provide for equal representation of brothers and sisters in the State Grange. Also memorial services in honor of the poet Whittier.

The editor of the Gobleville News is a life-long Republican. Heretofore his paper has occupied an independent position, politically, but we are informed that he considers it his duty during the present campaign to swing his sheet into line for protection, reciprocity, and honest money, as defined by the Republican party in its platform. Correct, Bro. Hall.

'Twas a jolly surprise party that swooped down upon the home of Hon. and Mrs. C. L. Eaton last Friday evening on the eve of the family's departure for the east. They went fully armed and equipped for a good time, nearly every one bringing either a basket of grapes or peaches, a folding pedro table, or some other auxiliary to the object in view, and it was close on to Saturday morning before they bid the family good night and good-bye.

Dr. Edwin C. Kelly, business manager of the St. Joseph Bichloride of Gold Co. of St. Joseph, Mich., was in this place a few days since in the interest of his company, which is composed of the leading professional and business men of that city. They offer to treat free of expense a patient sent by the Epworth League, the W. C. T. U., and the Society of Christian Endeavor. For further and full particulars, address the company as above, or simply box 2077 St. Joseph, Mich.

Governor Winans has issued a proclamation, recommending the observance by the people of Michigan of the twenty-first day of October, 1892, (Columbus Day), as a general holiday; that business be suspended, and that civil and military organizations join the public schools in celebrating the day. This proclamation is based on the suggestion of the World's Congress Auxiliary of the World's Columbian Exposition, and also a proclamation to the same effect by the President of the United States.

Jos. Davey and Hon. C. L. Eaton are near neighbors and warm personal friends, but politically they are as far apart as the east is from the west. From a flag staff on Mr. Davey's residence floats a Cleveland streamer, while "Harrison and Ried" is the legend on Mr. Eaton's colors. Last week these two gentlemen were away from home and on their return were shocked to find that some practical joker had made them appear to have swapped politics by exchanging their flags.

Dr. C. S. Maynard met with a very painful and somewhat serious accident last Thursday afternoon. He had called at Waters' hardware store on business and was standing near a counter on which were several heavy iron pumps. A clerk in the store was standing on the counter in order to reach some goods from the upper shelves, and in some manner knocked off a pump which landed squarely on the doctor's left foot, crushing the bones of the little toe and its nearest neighbor.

The State fair last week was not a success, financially. The loss of Monday and Tuesday receipts by reason of heavy and continued rains could not be overcome, notwithstanding the attendance the balance of the week was immense, and as a result the expenses exceed the receipts by something like $1,500. There will be a special meeting of the executive committee this week at Lansing for the purpose of devising means of raising funds with which to pay premium awards, which will all be paid in full. The receipts were sufficient to meet all other expenditures.

Coroner McCabe and Undertaker Goodale were hastily summoned Saturday night to look after the body of a man who had suddenly died at Dr. Maynard's office. Arriving there, Coroner McCabe decided no inquest was necessary and ordered the undertaker to take charge of the remains. The "remains" turned over, looked around, inquired "Where am I at?" and remarked that he was a Democrat and didn't propose to die until after election. McCabe and Goodale dug them up for the boys and called it square.

John Washington, a colored man who has been at work in Lew. Roberts' barber shop for a few weeks past, came very near dying Saturday night. While shaving a customer in the shop he was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs, to which he has been subject at times for a year or more. He went to Dr. Maynard's office for something to relieve him and on arriving there fell to the floor, and it was thought at the time he was dying. He rallied, however, and was taken to his boarding house. Monday he left for Southern California.

Business Brevities.

Are you going to buy a new heating stove this fall? Whether you are or not, don't fail to read Fred Bilsborrow's adv. in this paper.

During the past week Snow Bro's have put furnaces into the residences of Samuel Consalus of Paw Paw and John Robbins of Arlington.

There is no time like the present to buy cloaks; and there can be no finer stock to select from than that of "The Leaders." See their adv. in this paper. At Avery's dry goods house everybody is too busily engaged in unpacking and marking their new fall stock to write up advertisements, but it will be well to watch for startling announcements next week.

Mrs. H. R. Odell has just received one of the finest stocks of millinery for the fall and winter trade ever opened in this market, and invites her old friends and customers and the ladies generally to call and examine the same.
